The Department of Human Services and Community Leadership (HSCL) is the place to discover how to help children and families as a career path that meets your need to make a difference in the world! With both undergraduate and graduate programs, we will help you find your place in this world. <https://www.eiu.edu/hscl/>

As the Graduate Coordinator of the M.S. In Family & Consumer Sciences graduate degree program, I invite prospective students to contact me to discuss how our graduate degree can strengthen your career potential and advancement. Beginning Fall 2019, the degree will be named M.S. in Human Services & Program Administration, following the reorganization at EIU that has taken effect this academic year. If you have graduated with an undergraduate degree in FCS, let's talk about what opportunities are open to you for graduate study. flmurphy@eiu.edu <https://www.eiu.edu/mhs/>

The Child & Family Life Education Center is the practicum site for HSCL courses and provides enrichment programming for infants, toddler, and preschool children up to kindergarten age. FCS 4851 - Infant Development is a senior/graduate level course that provides specialized experience and skills development with infants and young toddlers. Offered Spring 2019, contact Dr. Murphy for more information. flmurphy@eiu.edu
